MUTUAL NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

Covering International Empire Consultants, Inc. and all of its assets listed in Schedule A

This Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into as of _____ ("Effective Date"), by and between:

International Empire Consultants, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation with its principal place of business at 923 Hyde Park Ave, Boston, MA 02136 ("IEC"), and

_____, a _____ with its principal place of business at _____ ("Counterparty").

IEC and Counterparty are each a "Party" and together the "Parties." Each Party may disclose Confidential Information to the other in connection with discussions regarding a potential business relationship, pilot deployment, partnership, or investment involving IEC and/or one or more of the assets listed in Schedule A (the "Purpose").

1. Confidential Information

"Confidential Information" means all non-public information disclosed by one Party (the "Disclosing Party") to the other (the "Receiving Party"), whether orally, visually, or in writing, that is designated as confidential or that a reasonable person would understand to be confidential given the circumstances of disclosure. It includes, without limitation: product designs, software, source code, algorithms, technical documentation, business plans, pricing, customer and patient-related information (subject to Section 9), financial data, and marketing strategies.

Exclusions. Confidential Information does not include information that: (a) is or becomes publicly available without breach of this Agreement; (b) was already known to the Receiving Party without a duty of confidentiality, as shown by written records; (c) is independently developed by the Receiving Party without use of or reference to the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information; or (d) is rightfully received from a third party without a duty of confidentiality.

2. Obligations

The Receiving Party shall: (a) hold the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information in strict confidence; (b) use it solely for the Purpose; (c) not disclose it to any third party except as permitted in Section 3; and (d) protect it with at least the same degree of care it uses for its own confidential information, and in no event less than reasonable care.

3. Permitted disclosures

The Receiving Party may disclose Confidential Information to its and its affiliates' employees, contractors, and professional advisors who have a need to know for the Purpose and who are bound by confidentiality obligations at least as protective as this Agreement. The Receiving Party remains responsible for any breach by such persons.

4. Legally compelled disclosure

If the Receiving Party is required by law, regulation, or court order to disclose Confidential Information, it shall (to the extent legally permitted) promptly notify the Disclosing Party and cooperate to seek confidential treatment, disclosing only the minimum information legally required.

5. No license; no obligation

Nothing in this Agreement grants any intellectual property license or right, by implication or otherwise. Neither Party is obligated to enter into any further agreement or transaction. All Confidential Information is provided "as is."

6. Return or destruction

Upon the Disclosing Party's written request, or upon termination of discussions regarding the Purpose, the Receiving Party shall promptly return or destroy all Confidential Information (including copies), except for one archival copy retained for legal compliance, which remains subject to this Agreement.

7. Term and survival

This Agreement takes effect on the Effective Date and continues for two (2) years. The obligations in Sections 1-4 and 6 survive for two (2) years from the date of each disclosure. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Receiving Party's obligations with respect to Confidential Information that qualifies as a trade secret under applicable law shall survive for so long as such information remains a trade secret.

8. Remedies

The Parties acknowledge that breach may cause irreparable harm for which monetary damages are inadequate, and the Disclosing Party is entitled to seek injunctive relief in addition to any other remedies.

9. Protected health information

If any disclosure involves protected health information ("PHI") as defined by HIPAA, the Parties shall execute a Business Associate Agreement before any PHI is disclosed, and this Agreement does not authorize the disclosure of PHI.

10. General

This Agreement is the entire agreement on confidentiality for the Purpose and supersedes prior discussions on that subject. It may not be amended except in a signed writing. Neither Party may assign it without the other's written consent, except to a successor in a merger or asset sale. If any provision is unenforceable, the remainder continues in effect. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, without regard to conflict-of-law rules. The Parties consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for any dispute arising under this Agreement. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement is effective unless in a signed writing, and no waiver of one breach constitutes waiver of any other. It may be executed in counterparts, including by electronic signature.

SCHEDULE A - IEC ASSETS COVERED BY THIS AGREEMENT

Confidential Information relating to any of the following assets (and any successor, rebranded, or derivative version of them) is covered by this Agreement:
